

"This is not just a networking site, it is a treasure chest of resources, lesson plans, and invaluable learning content from the world's best."

*Dan Roberts, Deputy Head-teacher
Plymouth, GB*

We are excited to welcome you to the new version of the Partners in Learning Network: www.pil-network.com. Our enhanced network embraces the theme "your ideas matter." It is a community for educators, by educators, and further amplifies the great work that is being done every day by our Partners in Learning members. With this idea in mind, we invite you to try out this global online resource and community designed to encourage collaboration and the spread of ideas for the betterment of education worldwide.

The new Partners in Learning Network is the next generation of the global network serving educators and school leaders in over 115 countries. To facilitate a truly global community of innovative educators, the site is now available in 36 different languages, thanks to the use of Microsoft translator services. The evolution of the Partners in Learning Network has advanced by including many more new features appealing to educators and school leaders, including:

- User Generated Learning Activities
- Available in 36 Languages
- Community Member Search
- Access to Free Tools and Tutorials
- Dynamic Personal Profiles
- Recognition, Reward Badge System
